

WEST OF SCOTLAND SCHOOL OF ANAESTHESIA CPD UPDATES DAY

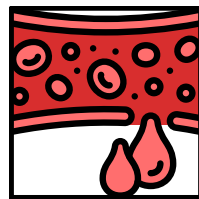

Management of the complex burns patient and the psychological impact on our patients

Skills for CCT: is there a role for perioperative echo? How can we maintain our skills in fiberoptic intubation?

Update on resident development and wellbeing

Major haemorrhage: surgical considerations, role of IR, targeted haemostatic therapy

Debate - is it time Anaesthetics became run through training?

27th August 2026

The Studio, Hope Street Glasgow

£60 residents and PA(A)s/ £120 Consultants and SAS

Lunch and refreshments included

click here to book:

Resident oral and poster presentations with prizes up for grabs!
Abstract submissions to wossa.studyday@gmail.com

WEST OF SCOTLAND SCHOOL OF FAUGET ANAESTHESIA CPD UPDATES DAY

09:00		Registration
09:25	Welcome
Session 1: Management of Major Bleeds and Lessons for Wider Care
Chair: Dr Adam Capek, College Tutor GRI
09:30 - 09:50	Surgical Oncology and Major Resections		Ms Martha Quinn
09:50 - 10:10	Anaesthesia approach to major haemorrhage		Dr Malcolm Broom
10:10 - 10:30	How interventional radiology can help us in major haemorrhage and when it can't		Dr Menelaos Philippou
10:30 - 10:45		Coffee
Session 2: Skills for CCT
Chair: Dr Tom Aitken, Stage 1 STC Rep
11:15 - 11:35	Should we all be academics?		Prof Tara Quasim
11:35 - 11:55	Should we all be able to echo?		Dr Alex Puxty
11:55 - 12:15	Is awake fiberoptic intubation an essential skill for all?		Dr Fintan McMorrow
12:30		Lunch and Posters
Session 3: Complex Plastics and Burns Surgery and Psychological Impact
Chair: Dr Gemma Scotland, College Tutor GRI
13:15 - 13:35	Complex Flaps		Prof Steven Lo
13:35 - 13:55	Clinical Psychology in Plastic Surgery		Dr Rebecca Gammage
Session 4: Wellbeing
Chair: Dr Julie Campbell, College Tutor GRI
14:10 - 14:30	What is debriefing?		Dr Simon Evans
14:30 - 14:50	Inequality in Organ Donation and Transplant		Dr Radha Sundaram
15:00		Coffee/ Drinks
Session 5: Oral Presentations and Prizes
Chair: Dr Simon Chitnis, Stage 3 STC Rep
15:15 - 15:45	Presenters: Dr Joseph Kelly, Dr Charlotte Targett and Dr Jillian Scott
Session 6: Debate - Is it time anaesthetics became run through training?
15:45 - 16:15	Chair: Dr Gemma Scotland Pro: Dr Tom Aitken. Against: Dr Malcolm Smith
16:15		Close	