Obstetric Novice Anaesthesia Course

A practical, hands-on course designed for anaesthetic residents prior to starting or during their Initial Assessment of competence in obstetric anaesthesia (IACOA)

ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE
Core obstetric anaesthesia principles and decision-making.

HANDS-ON TRAINING
Practical skills in a safe, supportive environment.

CLINICAL SCENARIOS
Realistic simulations to build confidence and competence.

EXPERT FACULTY
Learn from experienced clinicians passionate about education.

26th April 2027

Build confidence, skills, and practical readiness for obstetric anaesthesia

WHO IS THIS FOR?

Clinicians early in their practice seeking a strong foundation in obstetric anaesthesia.

FOCUS AREAS

Labour analgesia, emergency caesarean section, maternal safety, airway and haemorrhage management .

LEARN, PRACTISE, APPLY.

Bridging theory with practice to help you deliver safe, effective care when it matters most.

Venue: Sherman Centre, Guy's hospital, 29 Weston St, London SE1 9SP

REGISTER YOUR INTEREST VIA BOOKCPD